Aimee Hanson, induced him to assign Atmee Hanson, induced him to assign to her his interest in the trust funds, promising to pay him $4,000 a year. Shortly thereafter Hanson cloped with a vaudeville actress known as Henri-etta Reutii. Immediately after their marriage he says his mother started in-competency proceedings against him in Saratoga County. At that time she ac-cused her son of being a drunkard, who had seld most of his valuables to get liquor.

Money Talks

AND THE MONEY OF

Evening Mail Readers

HAS SPOKEN. AND THIS IS WHAT THAT MONEY HAS SAID:

THE EVENING MAIL has gained a greater volume of advertising in August than any other New York evening newspaper.

THE EVENING MAIL has maintained this lead over all the other evening papers in June and July.

When THE EVENING MAIL can do this THREE MONTHS in succession it means that Evening Mail readers are "making good" for The Evening Mail.

THE EVENING MAIL in four months has gained 352,174 lines of advertising. This is a record which is causing New York newspaperdom to marvel.

In four months The Evening Mail has gained 188,436 lines in dry goods advertising.

The remainder of the gain is distributed among 25 different classifications of advertising, which shows that not only has recognition been freely given by advertisers to the purchasing power behind The Even. ing Mail's substantial circulation, but that Evening Mail readers are filling ALL THEIR WANTS through the columns of THE EVENING has MAIL.

HERE ARE THE FACTS

THE RECORDS OF THE PAST THREE MONTHS:

THE MILK IN THE ADVERTISING COCOANUT.

Department stores demand results, and their efficient organizations have methods of telling exactly what each paper is producing in results for the advertising that is in it.

In the last four months The Evening Mail has not only led all the others in the volume of gain, with the remarkable record of 188,436 lines, but in the last two months has carried a greater aggregate of dry goods advertising than either the Evening Journal or the Evening World. Here is the record for August.

Records on Some Classifications

A Gain of 101,115 Lines of Financial Advertising Since Jan. 1.

Since January 1 The Evening Mail has increased its Financial advertising 90%. It has made a gain in volume of 101,115 lines.

Its gain in August was 10,906 lines, or 69%, a greater percentage of gain than any of the class papers.

This gain has been made in the face of a rigid standard for financial advertising which causes us to refuse between $4,500 and $5,000 worth of advertising each month.

The Trend Toward The Evening Mail's Music Page.

In August the Musical Instrument advertising in The Evening Mail jumped 6,770 lines over last year's figures.

Here are the figures: MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

Mail gained 6,710	lines
Sun gained10.049	lines
Post gained 2,127	lines
Globe lost 8,903	lines

The Evening Mail was third in volume of this kind of advertising in all New York papers for August.

National Advertising Steadily Increases.

In August The Evening Mail gained 32,454 lines of national advertising. It was second among the class papers in gain on this classification.

Leads Class Papers in Volume of Automobile Advertising for August.

Below is given the record of Automobile advertising carried last month by the class papers:

Mail......20,614, a gain of 10,368 lines Globe 18,413, a gain of 14,028 lines Post 16,488, a gain of 10,546 lines Sun 10,754, a loss of 1,509 lines

The Evening Mail for the first eight months of this year carried more automobile business than either the Globe or Post.

The Gains Made by The Evening Mail's Food Page.

The steady growth of advertis-ing on The Evening Mail's Food Page is due to the excellence of the page itself. It has gained national recognition.

For the month of August The Evening Mail gained 9,759 lines.

Evening Mail FIRST Among Class Papers in Amusement Advertising.

For reasons that are obvious The Evening Mail has this leadership. A class of readers who have substantial incomes and who depend on The Evening Mail's advertising columns for "where to go to-night."

THE RECORD. Mail carried 7,390 lines, a gain of 1,959 lines.

Post carried 5,644 lines, a gain of 1,646 lines. Sun carried 6,842 lines, a gain of 695 lines. Globe carried 6,378 lines, a loss of 870 lines.

The Evening Mail also shows & gain of 4,730 in Hotel and Restaurant advertising.
